In Complex: Framed in lush tropical greenery amid peaceful natural surroundings this complex is Phuket's newest community enclave, located within developer, a multi-award winning integrated resort comprising premier resorts, luxury spas, residential developments, and an 18-hole golf course. The new phase is situated a short distance from the pristine waters of Bang Tao, a threekilometre beach on Phuket's exclusive west coast. The landed estate is located 20 minutes' drive from the Phuket International Airport, and within a short drive from the island's shopping centres, world class private hospitals, and international schools.

Townhouse: The newly designed Townhomes and Semi-detached houses draw inspiration from the traditional Thai architectural practice of raising up the home's first floor to create a flexible, multifunctional space on the ground level. Living spaces are further enhanced with a second multipurpose space on the top floor, thus providing a range of configuration options to suit each owner – an extra bedroom, entertainment or recreation area – the possibility is limitless.
